2012 Board Candidate Statements

REGIONAL DIRECTOR

CENTRAL REGION

John W. Sanders
John A. Logan College, IL

It is with great humility that I seek the Central Regional Director's position. For the past three years, I have had the distinct pleasure of serving on the ACCT Board. Not only has it been an honor to serve our association in this capacity but it has also been a tremendous learning process.

Last summer, the ACCT Directors placed great confidence in me by electing me as Secretary/Treasurer of the Board. I was able to oversee a very positive budget and observe that our professional staff do an excellent job for ACCT. Recently, I was elected Vice Chair of the ACCT Board and I look forward to serving the association in this capacity as we continue to thrive and promote community colleges throughout the country.

ACCT is blessed with outstanding leaders and it would be a great honor for me to continue to serve ACCT as a member of the Board of Directors.

PACIFIC REGION

Frederick “Fred” Whang
Tacoma Community College, WA

Since becoming a Pacific Regional Director of ACCT, I have served on the Public Policy Committee, Finance and Audit Committee, and now the Governance and Bylaws Committee, which has afforded me insight and access to ACCT’s operations. From this insight and access, I have been able to use this knowledge to better serve our Pacific region members.

As Pacific region trustees, we must not forget that the Pacific Region is comprised of fourteen different states, territories and nations, some far flung from the continental United States. I have always been concerned and have made known to the ACCT Board that these entities experience unique, costly and time-consuming obstacles to participating in ACCT. As your re-elected Pacific Regional Director, I will continue to promote views, suggestions and ideas from ALL of our eleven regional member states and territories, who should have their voices equally heard.

The Reverend Coleman is President/CEO of W.E.C. Resource Group LLC, a human resource development firm. Retired as New York City Police Detective and Executive Director of Job Corps, he is an ordained Baptist Minister with both Bachelors and Masters Degrees.

William is an active member of his community, serves on several New Jersey commissions and County/Mayoral Task Forces. A teacher, trainer, team builder and motivator, he focuses on workplace diversity and equal opportunity compliance. He is known as a community and capacity builder.
SOUTHERN REGION

Randall “Mack” Jackson
Midlands Technical College, SC

Throughout my life I have been fortunate to work in a variety of positions: a counselor in a local Job Corps Center, a dean of student services, an associate pastor, a business owner, and a trustee on the Midlands Technical College Commission. In all of those positions I’ve experienced first-hand the value of the differences among students, employees, colleges and communities.

I have more than 18 years’ experience in higher education management and administration, and demonstrated community involvement in programs that target youth, college students, and young adults. I have provided active assistance to non-profit organizations focusing on multicultural education and training, health, and governance.

I am currently serving as Chair of the ACCT Diversity Committee, and I would like to bring my life experience to continued service with ACCT as a member of the ACCT Board. I am fully committed to advancing the community college national agenda if elected to serve.

WESTERN REGION

Robert “Bob” Feit
Southeast Community College, NE

I have been a member of the Southeast Community College Board of Governors for 15 years, presently serving as Chair. I have served on the college’s Finance and Facilities Team since my appointment, and as Team Chair for ten of those years.

During my terms, I have been an active supporter of community colleges throughout the state, including visiting with my local senator and testifying as needed in the state legislative arena, and visiting with my Senators and Representatives in Washington.

I have served on the Nebraska Community College Association board for the last thirteen years, held all offices in that association during my terms, and have served as ACCT’s Nebraska State Coordinator for nine years. Most recently, I have enjoyed serving as ACCT’s Western Regional Chair, coordinating the activities of seven state coordinators.

DIRECTOR-AT-LARGE

Stanley Edwards
Halifax Community College, NC

I consider myself qualified to occupy a seat on the ACCT Board because of my experience, my passion for what community colleges do, and my knowledge of board procedures.

I am currently in my tenth year as a member of Board of Trustees where I served five years as Chair and am currently the liaison to the State Ethics Commission. I am a member of the Executive Board of NCACCT and the Legislative Planning Group which consists of representation from the community college presidents, select trustees, the community college system office, and the Executive Director of NCACCT. This group plans the political agenda and develops strategies to pursue legislative goals for the community colleges.

Donna Horgan
Cecil College, MD

As a Cecil College trustee since 2008, I have proudly served as the trustee-at-large for the Maryland Association of Community Colleges’ (MACC) executive committee. MACC is the voice and advocate for Maryland’s 16 community colleges. Additionally, I am the Maryland State Coordinator for ACCT and recently was elected to a one-year partial ACCT regional director position.

Jeffrey A. May
Joliet Junior College, IL

For the last 32 years, I have built the necessary skill set to be an effective leader within ACCT. Experiences that have sharpened my skills include: working with at-risk youth; assisting policymakers develop effective educational programming; serving as a community college trustee; participating with the Illinois Community College Trustees Association; serving as an associate member of ACCT; and serving as an ACCT board member. I also have served as the executive director for the Education Service Network (ESN), a continuum of services for educationally at-risk youth.

I hold a bachelor’s degree in education from Western Illinois University, a master’s degree in education administration from Illinois State University and have completed course work on a doctorate in education from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana.

I strongly believe in the importance of community colleges and their role in helping students develop skills that will make them contributing members of society.

My greatest accomplishment is advocating the community college’s role in reinvigorating the economy. I will continue to champion community college’s commitment to improving student completion rates and strengthening economic development.

Cecil College provided me the skills necessary to gain employment as desk officer for the Maryland State Senate and chief floor assistant to the senate president. I instilled the value of education in my daughter who as a result enrolled and graduated from Cecil in 2003.

As a board member for ACCT, I will work tirelessly to ensure all students have access to college.
From making history as the first elected African American mayor in the state of Wisconsin, to serving on numerous civic, service, community and political boards and organizations, I have had the pleasure to advocate and focus on the enhancement of opportunities for diverse populations. I have contributed to improving the lives of underrepresented individuals and look forward to bringing my skills and knowledge to the ACCT Diversity Committee.

I am an American Red Cross certified diversity trainer. I have been a volunteer with the Mid-Michigan Chapter (MMC) of the American Red Cross (ARC) for more than 25 years. As a MMC volunteer I have twice served as chair of the chapter's diversity committee. Since becoming a volunteer I have attended nearly every diversity training program and conference offered by the ARC, and I have served as the diversity consultant on the ARC's Great Lakes Area Service Council. My volunteer service with the ARC includes chairing the MMC board of directors and the Michigan Red Cross Coordinating Committee. Additionally, the focus of most of my professional career has been labor and employment law matters, which often have included issues related to workplace diversity.

I have been a trustee of Lansing Community College since July 2003, with service as secretary/treasurer of the board and chair of presidential search committee.

My commitment to increasing educational equity and eliminating disparities based on difference motivated me to run for the Diversity Committee. As a parent of a community college student, and with 25+ years of experience as an anti-racism activist, I have developed the skills needed to grapple with the complex issues of diversity and inclusion at Community Colleges.

I was appointed to MassBay Community College’s Board of Trustees because of my long history of advocating for equity and racial justice in the Boston Public Schools. Currently I coordinate Boston United for Students, a multi-racial coalition advocating for school reform. My past professional experiences include: Development Director - Friends of the Rafael Hernandez Two-Way Bilingual School, Coordinator - Mobilization for Equity (a national school reform project promoting educational equity in urban school districts), Affirmative Action Manager - City of Weymouth, Massachusetts, and Founder - Rock Against Racism, an innovative youth leadership program.
PACIFIC REGION

Isabel Barreras
State Center Community College District, CA

My election to the State Center Community College District Governing Board nine years ago was based on advocacy for underrepresented groups in community colleges. I was the second Latino elected to the Board. Because of my advocacy, diversity is now considered a priority goal for our district. Consequently, an increase of Latino student success in transfer, degrees, and certificates has occurred. My voice has made a difference at State Center.

As a member of the California Community College Trustees Board of Directors I have had an influence on issues of diversity. I continue to make a difference in my community by advocating on all educational policies that affect our student population.

WESTERN REGION

John Davies
Northeast Community College, NE

It is with great enthusiasm that I seek a position on the ACCT Diversity Committee. I believe I can bring a plains-state, common-sense point of view and values to the committee.

This is an exciting time to be involved in diversity at the community college-level in the western region. We in northeast Nebraska have seen a significant influx of new cultures to our region. That influx takes our community college mission of educating all students to a new level. As community college educators, we must make education accessible and affordable to students of all ethnicities, including those with limited English-speaking and -reading skills. We are charged with serving those who want to increase basic skills and as the first step to those who want a more advanced, formal education.

By working with our new ethnicities, we can build and strengthen these ties and make our community colleges a warm and welcoming place for all cultures.

PARTIAL TERM IN WESTERN REGION

Due to the passing of Diversity Committee Member John Mondragon, a 1-year partial term on the Diversity Committee is available. An election will be held during the Western Regional Caucus and Meeting to fill the position. Nominations will be accepted from the floor.
Ratification of Amendments to the ACCT Bylaws

AMENDMENT #1
During the 2012 National Legislative Summit, the ACCT Board of Directors and the Governance and Bylaws Committee approved an amendment to the ACCT Bylaws that would allow the voting delegates in the Senate Meeting and the Regional Caucuses to vote by acclamation during elections in which there are no more candidates than positions to be filled.

ARTICLE VII, BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Section 4, Nominations and Elections, Subsection h.
A majority of ballots cast is necessary for election as director. On any ballot, voting delegates may cast as many votes as there are positions to be filled. On any ballot only one vote may be cast for a candidate. If one or more candidates is/are elected on any ballot then all remaining candidates shall continue to be eligible for election to any position remaining to be filled. If no person is elected on any ballot, then the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes on that ballot shall be dropped before the next ballot. If there are no more candidates than positions to be filled, the election shall be by acclamation.

Rationale
During the ACCT Senate Meeting at the 2011 Community College Leadership Congress, the election for three Director-at-Large positions was held. The nomination process yielded three candidates for three open positions. After the nomination process was closed, there was a motion to vote by acclamation for the positions. The ACCT Parliamentarian ruled that under ACCT Bylaws, Article VII, Section 4, the authority to vote by acclamation does not exist. In fact, the ACCT Bylaws require ballots to be cast in any election. The absence of the acclamation language would also require the Regional Caucuses to cast a ballot on all elections going forward, unless the ACCT Bylaws are amended.

AMENDMENT #2
During the 2011 ACCT Community College Leadership Congress, the ACCT Board of Directors and the Governance and Bylaws Committee approved an amendment to the ACCT Bylaws to ensure a timely board election and installation process.

ARTICLE VII, BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Section 5, Duration of Office, Subsection a.
Current language: Each elected Director shall serve for a term of three years, and the term shall end with the installation of a successor during the Annual Community College Leadership Congress.

Proposed language: The term of each elected Director shall be three years or until the election and installation of a successor during the Annual Community College Leadership Congress.

Rationale
The current language provides for a three-year term and ends with the installation of a successor. This causes a problem if, for example, the timing of the Community College Leadership Congress is more than, or less than, exactly three years since a member’s election. It creates ambiguity in determining which situation supersedes the other – the three-year term, or the installation of a successor. Furthermore, it does not include language that indicates the director has been elected before having been installed.

The proposed language would allow the ACCT Board of Directors, with the appropriate board policy, to call for the election of a successor within the term-year term of office during the Community College Leadership Congress if the ACCT Board determines that a current elected board member is failing to discharge his or her board responsibilities. The proposal would increase board accountability by ensuring that the voting membership of the association is fully represented in the affairs of the ACCT Board by ensuring full participation from all 24 elected board members.
Seeking Regional Nominating Committee Members for 2013-2014

ACCT Regional Chairs invite member trustees to serve on Regional Nominating Committees. The commitment of Nominating Committee members to carrying out their duties helps to ensure that the association’s future leadership is comprised of member trustees who have demonstrated quality leadership in community colleges. Nominating Committee members nominate candidates who are committed to and support the fulfillment of ACCT’s mission — Promoting Effective Board Governance through Advocacy and Education.

Benefits of Serving on a Regional Nominating Committee

- Identify effective future leaders
- Serve as a stepping-stone for you to aspire to a future leadership position
- Strengthen leadership in your region

They may serve more than one term, but terms may not be consecutive. The chair of each Nominating Committee shall be elected by the members of the respective Nominating Committee at the close of the regional caucus.
