

Professional Board Staff (PBSN) Charter

The Professional Board Staff Network (PBSN), under the aegis of the Association of Community College Trustees (ACCT), will provide individuals at community colleges who support governing boards and/or presidents/CEOs with a focus on continued development and enhancement of professional skills, sharing expertise and best practices, keeping abreast of new developments, and becoming more proficient at rendering service to governing boards and/or presidents/CEOs.

MISSION

The Professional Board Staff Network provides a national level resource for those who support governing boards and/or presidents/CEOs of community colleges.

GOALS

To promote valuable opportunities for those who support governing boards and/or presidents/CEOs, the Professional Board Staff Network will:

1. Provide ongoing professional development;
2. Provide networking and interactive discussion for the growth of interpersonal relationships among national peers and colleagues;
3. Provide national leadership opportunities as an officer of PBSN;
4. Develop and present programs at the annual ACCT Congress; and
5. Facilitate communication through the ACCT website and Trustee Quarterly, the PBSN list serve, and publications.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

PBSN Membership

Staff who support governing boards and/or presidents/CEOs of member institutions of ACCT are considered members of the Professional Board Staff Network.

PBSN members will have the opportunity to vote on the Professional Board Staff Network bylaws, officers, and other organizational business during the PBSN business meeting held at the annual ACCT Congress.
